Unjammed 🚂

A calm train yard puzzle for kids and grown-ups.
Developed by NoADs Games ApS.

Trains are jammed in the yard, and each one can only drive the way its locomotive points. Free a train and it rolls up to a platform. Passengers wait in line in coloured jackets and board front to back, only onto a train in their own colour. When a train is full, it puffs out a cloud of steam and departs.

Easy to learn, and surprisingly tricky by depot 100.

On iPhone or iPad: open the link in Safari, tap Share → Add to Home Screen, and Unjammed works like an app, offline too.

What's inside

- 100 depots that get harder step by step, with a tough depot at the end of every ten
- 3 platforms to start with, and two more you can earn
- Every colour has its own shape, so you can play colour blind
- No ads, no timers, no tracking. Nothing is collected, and progress stays on your device.
- Every depot can be solved to 100%, and every solution has been checked by computer.

How to play

1. Tap a train whose track ahead is clear. It drives to a free platform.
2. The person at the front of the line boards if a platform has a train in their colour.
3. A full train departs on its own and frees the platform.
4. Get every passenger aboard for a perfect run ★
